DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 1 and 2 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Claims 1 and 2, line 1, "inspect" should be changed to "insect".

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In regard to claim 1, line 7, the term "the temperature of the carbon dioxide" lacks positive antecedent basis and should be changed to "a temperature...".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Art Unit: 3643

5. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Wigton et al. 6,145,243.

Wigton et al. discloses a valve (58) that receives a gaseous fuel (hydrocarbon fuel from tank 14) and provides a regulated flow of fuel; means responsive to the regulated flow of fuel for generating carbon dioxide (burner 56) to attract insects to a predetermined region (44, 50); means for generating airflow (fan 38) that forces insects within the region into a container (net bag 34); a temperature sensor (thermocouples 98, temperature sensitive bi-metal switch 100) that senses the temperature of the carbon dioxide (temperature of heat sink 104 will be equal to the temperature of carbon dioxide generated within combustion chamber 68) and provides a carbon dioxide temperature signal indicative thereof (sends command signal when temperature of heat sink rises above 180 degrees Fahrenheit); means responsive to the carbon dioxide temperature signal for generating a valve command signal (100 commands 58 to turn off when temperature of heat sink 104 rises above 180 degrees Fahrenheit) that regulates the valve (turns 58 off when temperature of heat sink 104 rises above 180 degrees Fahrenheit).

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claim 2 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

7. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art of record does not disclose means for comparing the carbon dioxide temperature signal value against a temperature reference signal value, and if said carbon dioxide temperature signal value is below the temperature reference signal value, for providing the valve command signal to open the valve.
